AT THE CHURCHES

The churches of Columbia have made preparations for taking care of the returning students, and for the hundreds of new students, many of them away from home at college for the first time. Special services, the formation of special classes for University students, the posting of placards by the Young People's Union of Columbia inviting the students to join one of the four church organizations of young people, all point to the fact that Columbia is aware of its spiritual responsibility for the students. The B. Y. P. U. at Broadway and Ninth street, Christian Endeavor, Tenth and Walnut streets, the Methodist Epworth League, 1201 East Broadway, and the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor, Tenth and Broadway, are the special organizations for students.

700,000 UNION MEN TO QUIT

N. Y. Traction Employees Threaten Walk-Out to Enforce Recognition.
NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A general walkout of 700,000 unionists in New York in an effort to force recognition in the traction strike seems a possibility tonight. A referendum is being taken among the union men tonight and tomorrow on the question of a walkout.

The Central Federation Union plans to enforce a boycott of the car lines by picketing. The city attorney says he will criminally or civilly prosecute all unionists attempting to interfere with loyal traction employees.
